they qualify. They generally remain qualified, the vast majority, 70 - 80 - 90 percent probably, throughout the rest of their lives. To impose upon them an annual requirement which is confusing . . The annual application requirement was confusing. I went to numerous meetings of elderly and church groups where they brought in the applications and had to explain it to them, how to fill it out, when to get it in by. You're recreating that whole thing with no justification for the bulk of the people. That's what the bill is all about. It's not . . . Senator George is I think perfectly responsible. PRESIDENT: Senator George.

SENATOR GEORGE: Am I closing on my motion?

PRESIDENT: There are no other lights on, so you may close debate Senator.

SENATOR GEORGE: I believe we have discussed it long enough. I do not see any improvement in the administrative process on the county court house level. I can only forsee that we are confusing hundreds of older people and just drag them to the court house in unnecessary fashion.

PRESIDENT: The question is the adoption of Senator George's motion. Record your vote. Have you voted? Record.

CLERK: 16 ayes, 13 nays.

PRESIDENT: Motion fails. Senator Anderson, no more amendments.

PRESIDENT: Wait. I saw no lights on. I called on Senator Anderson to make the motion to advance the bill. Could I inquire for what purpose do you arise Senator Cavanaugh?

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: I move to kill the bill.
